

Northern Colorado BUSINESS REPORT

NCBR ARTICLE

Fort Collins chamber board announced

By Staff

January 25, 2008 --

FORT COLLINS -- The Fort Collins Area Chamber of Commerce on Friday named new board members and officers for 2008. Jonathan Harshaw, owner of Shaw Sign & Awning, will start his term as chairman.

Tom Gendron, president and CEO of Woodward Governor Co., is chairman-elect. Other officers include treasurer Dan Gasper, president of Wells Fargo Bank; past chair Sharie Grant of OfficeScapes, and David May, the chamber's president and CEO.

"Over my career I've been privileged to work with many fine people on chamber boards of directors," May said in a statement announcing the new board members. "Without reservation I can say the Fort Collins chamber board is the best I've served."

The remaining 2008 board members are Paul Brinkman, Brinkman Partners; John Carroll, Ed Carroll Motor Co.; Donna Chapel, Chapel & Collins; Byron Collins, Paragon Investments; Mark Driscoll, First National Bank; Cynthia Eichler, Foothills Mall; Jason Eils, Realtec Commercial Real Estate Services (LLAC Appointment); David Everitt, Everitt Cos.; Carrie Gillis, New Colony Apartments; Allen Ginsborg, Pacific Retail Partners; Bruce Hendee, BHA Designs Inc. Ron Lautzenheiser, Big O Tire; Yvonne Myers, Columbine Health Systems; Chris Otto, EKS&H; Mike Pierce, Linden/Bartels & Noe Insurance; Jim Sampson, Flood & Peterson (Election Committee Appointment); and Lori Schlotter, Colorado CustomWare Inc.